Multiplayer Eight Ball

In this game there will be 16 balls on the table: 1 white ball, 1 black ball, 7 solid balls and 7 stripe balls. One player will be required to pocket all the solid balls and the other player will be required to pocket all the stripe balls. After a player has pocketed all his own balls, then he can pocket the black ball to win the game. But if the player has pocketed the eight ball before pocketing all his own balls, then he loses the game. The player must use the cue to hit the white ball first, and then use the white ball to hit other balls. If a player has pocketed a ball, then he can hit again, otherwise it will be the other player's turn. A foul occurs in one of the following situations: the white ball fails to hit any ball; the first ball the white ball hits is not one of the player's own balls; the white ball is pocketed. When a player commits a foul, the other player can put the white ball anywhere on the table to begin play.

Mahjongg

In this game you remove mahjonggs by picking them by pairs. You can only pick a mahjongg if it is on the top of the stack and it can be reached from the left or from the right. You need to pick the mahjonggs strategically because a single mahjongg can block the access of a lot of mahjonggs, so it is wise to pick such mahjonggs first.
